

LA MANO POTTERY

Simon Leach visited La Mano the weekend of March 8th. His visit was refreshing and invigorating for the potters in the studio and for the New York ceramic community. His visit, both the artist's reception and the full day workshop, brought together potters from all over the city and beyond. The energy and enthusiasm was high and Simon's demonstrations captivated the audience. What a special opportunity to watch Simon make pottery in person. He certainly makes it look easy!

If you were not able to make it for Simon's visit his pottery will remain on view, and for purchase, at La Mano through March 31st.

Happy Spring!

Yours in Mud,

Studio Potters in the News

DV Hirsch, Miyu Asakawa, Jessie Lazar and Bob Pesce have all been studio potters at La Mano for several years. We are so excited about their successes. Read below to hear about what they have been up to:

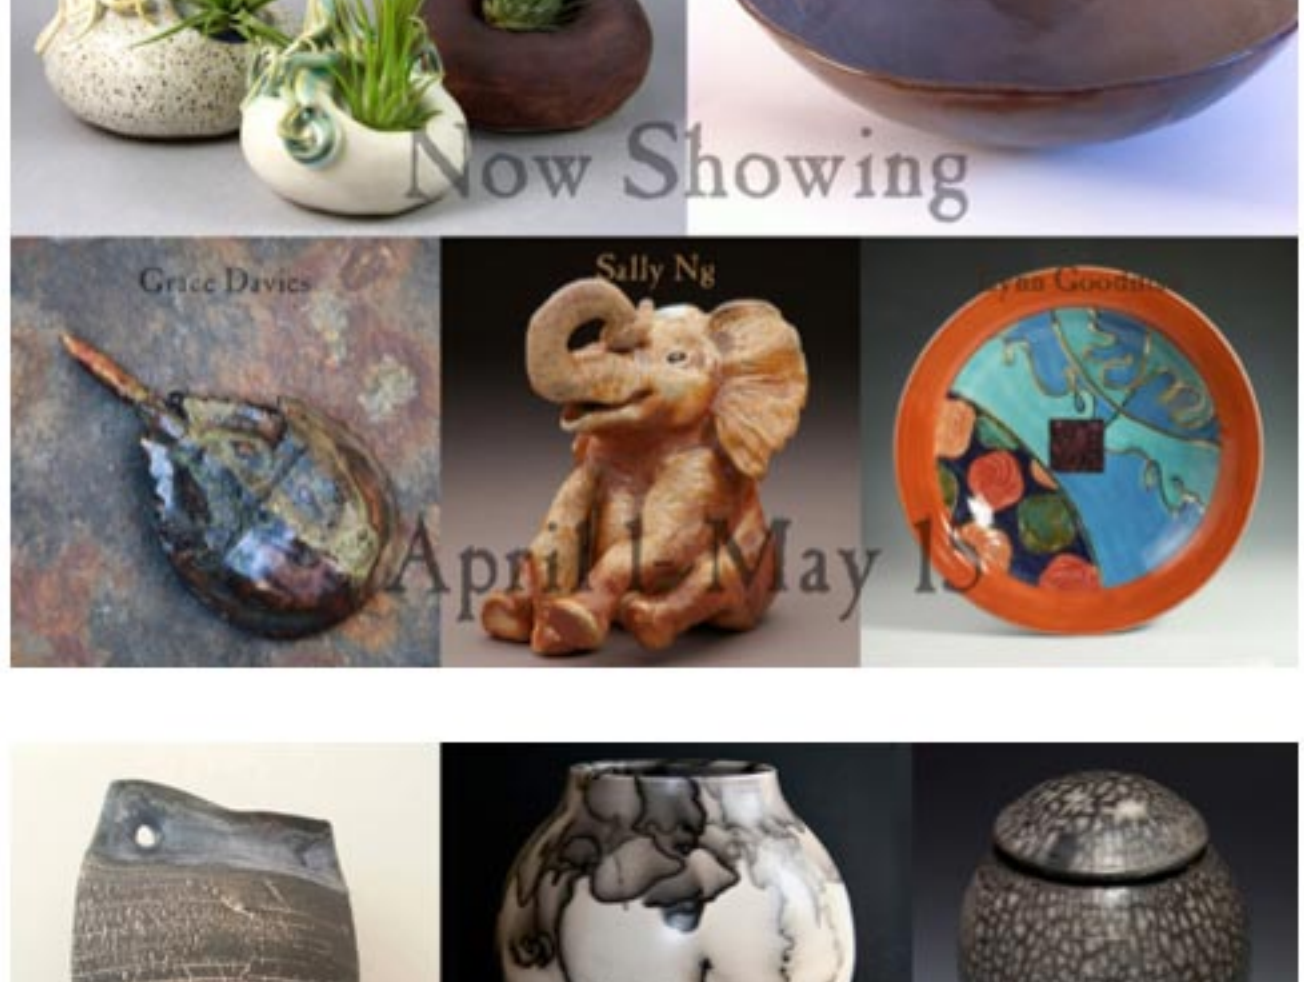

DV Hirsch is featured on www.scribbleblog.com. Please click on the link and check it out to learn more about her pottery. Congratulations DV!

Miyu Asakawa is currently in a two-person show, "Faces in the Crowd" at Art on a Gallery, 24 Avenue A (between 2nd and 3rd Streets) in the East Village. Her show consists of ceramic portraits and self-portraits, all hung on the wall opposite another visual artist (a painter). It is a powerful and beautiful show, and all of her pieces were raku fired. Her work is on display through April 19th. Absolutely a "must-see".

Bob Pesce was busy this month preparing and then showcasing (and selling) his work at The Pier Antiques and Collectibles Show. He had a space in a booth that was part of the American Art Pottery Association, of which he is a member. Great work, Bob!

Jessie Lazar was featured on fab.com selling her pottery and jewelry this month. Her 5 day sale on the site is over, but you can check out her work at jessielazar.com. Congratulations!

Upcoming Group Show in the Gallery

April 1 - May 15:

Richard Stauffacher, Julie Hadley, Grace Davies, Sally Ng, Lynn Goodman, Jesse Pape, Bonnie Hanna, David Hughes, Diane Waller, Doreen Baskin and Linda Skipper.
